Presenting our 17th international piano festival

Sergei Rachmaninov's 150th birthday falls in 2023 and this September at the New Ross Piano Festival we will celebrate the life and work of one of the most significant pianist-composers of all time. Yevgeny Sudbin has been hailed by The Telegraph as "potentially one of the greatest pianists of the 21st century". Lucy Parham brings her unique take on Rachmaninov's life in her show "Elegie", presented with actor Tim McInnerny. The festival also presents the Irish debuts of Clara Haskil Competition winner Yumeka Nakagawa and Canadian pianist Meagan Milatz. New works to evoke the history of the Dunbrody Famine Ship will sit alongside classics of the repertoire by Mozart, Schumann, Chopin, Schubert and much more. Our Jazz Day continues its tradition of presenting the very best pianists in that field.
